

TOASTMASTERS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Ede Ferrari-D'Angelo

2014-2016 International Director, Region 10

Ede Ferrari-D'Angelo of Orange, California, is a senior manager in the retail industry, responsible for human resource development and marketing and sales. She holds a bachelor's degree in speech communication with an emphasis on intercultural communication from California State University Fullerton in Fullerton, California.

A fitness advocate, Ferrari-D'Angelo opened a fitness center in 1985 in Westminster, California, which specialized in training competitive body builders. She also has hosted a public access program titled "Hooked on Health."

Ferrari-D'Angelo is both a member-at-large of the American Association of University Women and a Junior Achievement volunteer. She regularly makes presentations to high school students as part of California Senator Lou Correa's Young Senators Program.

A dedicated Toastmaster for 27 years, Ferrari-D'Angelo is a member of two clubs, including the Anaheim Breakfast club in Anaheim, California. She has held a number of distinguished leadership positions within the organization and has attained the Distinguished Toastmaster designation—the highest level of achievement in Toastmasters.

"I have learned that what people want most from a leader is fairness, honesty and forthrightness. They want a leader who will create an environment where they can take risks, grow and contribute."

As a member of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Ferrari-D'Angelo is a "working ambassador" for the organization. She works with the Board to develop and support the policies and procedures that guide Toastmasters International in fulfilling its mission.
